To Whom it May Concern,

What do you get when you combine guitar, trumpet, banjo, percussion, and catchy vocals with humor, movement, juggling, and lively audience participation? An award-winning musical variety show tailored for young minds that could only be called: "Razzle-Bam-Boom!"

On March 11, 2005, Mark Beckwith and Obediah Thomas performed three shows at the Countrywide Performing Arts Center Scherr Forum Theatre at the Thousand Oaks Civic Arts Plaza, Ventura County's premiere concert venue. These shows (two of which were sold out), were part of our very successful Children's Concert Series, which is now in its second decade. Throughout the performances, Mark and Obediah demonstrated the talent and showmanship to completely captivate the children, who ranged in age from pre-school through fifth grade, and to put huge smiles on the faces of the parents and teachers.

We have booked a large number of extremely talented and audience-pleasing performers over the years, and based upon this considerable experience, it is our belief that Mark Beckwith and Obediah Thomas should be ranked with the very best in children's entertainment and musical education!

Sincerely,

Kelley King,
Director, Conejo Valley Children's Concert Series
